The City of Terre Haute requests artists and arts organizations submit proposals for the 2007 arts grant funding program.

A complete copy of the grant application, along with an eligibility checklist, is attached. The grants are designed to support the installation of public art in Terre Haute, to support arts organizations in the provision of programming to reach a broad cross section of Terre Haute, and to support arts development in the form of delivery of services or board enhancement.

Guidelines for proposals and for groups and organizations eligible for the grants are available with the grant applications. The grants will be judged according criteria established by the Indiana Arts Commission.

Applications are available at City Hall either in person or on the city's website at www.terrehaute.in.gov, or through Arts Illiana.

Proposals for the 2007 Terre Haute Arts Grants will be accepted until 4 p.m. June 15. City officials hope to have the decision on funding grants by July 1.
